Property Introduction

Situated on the edge of the village, this detached bungalow offers versatile family size accommodation. In addition to the accommodation on offer, situated nearby is an enclosed parcel of land which incorporates a substantial purpose built barn measuring approximately 45' x 30'. The land benefits from good road access and has water supplied via a borehole. In total the land amounts to just under four acres and the steel frame constructed barn was built some six years ago and has a concrete floor. The bungalow benefits from four bedrooms, the principal bedroom has an en-suite and the family bathroom has been remodelled. There is a lounge/dining room with a feature fire surround and a fitted kitchen giving access to a utility/conservatory to the rear. Fully double glazed, there is LPG gas heating and the property benefits from solar panels on the roof which are rented together with a water solar panel which is owned by the property. Gardens surround the property, the rear being largely paved and there is a detached garage with parking to the rear.

This is an unusual and exciting opportunity to acquire a well proportioned family home with the added benefit of a generous enclosed parcel of land situated nearby.

Location

Troon is a popular village close to the major town of Camborne and benefits from a Primary School, village shop and sub-Post Office. There is a pharmacy and in the neighbouring village of Beacon one will find a Public House. Within one and a half miles there is the centre of Camborne which offers a wider range of shops, banks and a mainline Railway Station with direct links to London Paddington and the north of England. Access is also available from here onto the A30 trunk Road.

Truro, the administrative and cultural centre of Cornwall is within fourteen miles, Portreath on the north coast which is noted for its sandy beach and active harbour is within seven miles and Falmouth which is Cornwall's university town on the south coast is within ten miles.
