Freehold

Property Introduction

Situated on a no-through road within Carn Brea Village, this stone-fronted cottage enjoys an outlook towards Carn Brea. From the rear there are rural views towards the historic St Euny Church with its origins dating from the 6th Century.

Offered for sale with no onward chain, there are two bedrooms on the first floor, on the ground floor is a lounge, a pleasantly-proportioned kitchen/diner which overlooks the rear garden and beyond and a remodelled bathroom. The cottage would now benefit from some updating and modernisation, however, with the exception of a small rear porch, it has double glazing and there is gas fired central heating to radiators.

To the rear is an enclosed garden which terraces down to the pedestrian access at the bottom, it is largely lawned, well-stocked with shrubs and has an ornamental pond.

Viewing our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended prior to arranging a closer inspection.

Location

Set within a Conservation Area, Carn Brea Village nestles on the slopes of Carn Brea and gives access to country walks in the area, the historic former parish church of Redruth, St Euny, which dates from the 6th Century, is close by (the present church on the site being constructed in 1768).

Redruth, the nearest major town is within one mile and here, one will find a mix of local and national shopping outlets, a mainline Railway Station with direct links to London Paddington and the north of England and schooling for all ages is within walking distance.

The A30 trunk road runs to the north of the town. Truro, the administrative and cultural centre of Cornwall is within eleven miles, Falmouth, on the south coast, which is home to Cornwall's university is within twelve miles and the north coast at Portreath, which is noted for its sandy beach and active harbour is within five miles.
