Property Introduction

This lovely light and bright bungalow is located on a quiet cul-de-sac at the top of the popular village of Budock Water.

Consisting of three bedrooms, a spacious L-shaped lounge/diner and due to its elevated position you can enjoy lovely views of the bay. The lounge/diner leads into a good sized fitted modern kitchen with a stable door opening out to a wrap around garden. There is also a conservatory off the lounge and a utility/boot room off the entrance hall which also has its own door to outside, a shower and a WC which could be perfect for dependent relative. The bedrooms are at the far end of the bungalow with a modern fitted shower room.

The rear garden is fully enclosed with two patios, two sheds one being a 'Keter' and there is driveway parking for one car.

Location

The lovely village of Budock Water with all its facilities is located on the edge of Falmouth. The village has a very popular public house which holds frequent events, a well stocked village shop, restaurant, village hall, park and church. The village truly has a community feel and there are beautiful surrounding country walks.

Falmouth is approximately two miles distant. There is also a regular bus service which runs to other villages and to and from the town.
