Location

Kimberley Park Road has always been a popular residential area in Falmouth that leads down to the town centre which is approximately 800 metres away. In close vicinity, there is a doctor and dentist surgery, Falmouth Hospital, a bus stop and the beautiful open space of Kimberley Park where in the summer many concerts and events are held. Falmouth has four beautiful beaches to choose from and Gyllyngvase, one of the most popular, is just one mile distant.

Falmouth is a sought after location that offers so much to include the National Maritime Museum, Pendennis Castle, a multi-screen cinema, a wide range of restaurants, bars and cafes and a large variety of retail outlets. Falmouth boasts three train stations that provide transport links to Penryn, Truro and beyond.
