A collection of luxury 2-5 bedroom homes in the quintessential village of Benenden, perfectly positioned in the Weald of Kent – an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Life in Benenden

If you're looking to settle somewhere peaceful, Benenden in semi-rural Kent, offers it all. Set between Tenterden and Cranbrook, this pretty village sits in the heart of the area known as the Garden of England.

Next to the village green, you'll find The Bull at Benenden, a traditional pub serving real ales, local ciders and seasonal food. Nearby, the community-run shop doubles up as a café, post office, general store and wine cellar – making it a real hub for residents.

At the centre of Benenden is St. George's Church, a Grade II listed building that dates back to the 12th century. Its church tower houses an impressive set of 12 bells – one of the largest in the region, second only to Canterbury Cathedral.

Benenden has a strong sense of community, with events throughout the year ranging from casual games on the green to the annual village fete.

For those who enjoy the outdoors, the area offers plenty of walking routes, and Hemsted Forest – just a short drive away – provides 398 hectares of woodland to explore.

The best of the surrounding area

With its blend of rural charm, historical significance, and modern convenience, Benenden and the surrounding areas present a well-rounded and attractive place to live.

Just a short drive away (6 miles) is Bodiam Castle, an impressive 14th century moated fortress managed by the National Trust. Sissinghurst Castle Garden, also nearby, is internationally renowned for its carefully designed gardens and historical significance.

If you relish an active lifestyle the area provides ample opportunities. Tenterden, just 5.3 miles away, features a well-equipped leisure centre and the highly-regarded London Beach

Golf Club set against scenic Wealden countryside. To the West, Bedgebury National Pinetum and Forest offers extensive trails for cycling, mountain biking, walking and running, as well as family friendly activities like Go Ape treetop adventures.

Day-to-day needs are well catered for, in the Benenden Community shop, neighbouring village farm shops and independent stores. Local dining options include several highly rated establishments, including Michelin Guide restaurants such as The Swan at Chapel Down, West House in Biddenden and The Small Holding in Kilndown.

Benenden is well-positioned for access to larger towns, regional centres and the coast. Royal Tunbridge Wells, Maidstone, and Hastings are all within 30-40 minutes' drive, providing a wider selection of retail, dining, seasonal events and cultural experiences.

Everyday essentials, close at hand

Benenden village enjoys a wide range of conveniences within easy reach. Just a short drive or bus ride away, nearby towns like Cranbrook, Hawkhurst and Tenterden offer supermarkets, healthcare facilities, banks, and a variety of shops and restaurants. A Continued Legacy of Craftsmanship

A B Canham & Son and Canham Homes

At the heart of Canham Homes lies a proud heritage built on over five decades of experience, traditional craftsmanship, and unwavering family values. That story begins with A B Canham & Son, a name synonymous with building quality homes across Kent for more than 50 years.

Celebrating 50 Years of Building Excellence

Established in 1974, A B Canham & Son marked its 50th anniversary in 2024 – a remarkable milestone that reflects a long-standing commitment to building quality homes for half a century. Over the years, the company has earned a trusted reputation for delivering everything from bespoke homes and renovations to commercial builds, always with attention to detail and pride in workmanship.

A Natural Evolution

While A B Canham & Son continues to operate as a respected construction company, Canham Homes was established to bring that same ethos into new home development – building carefully designed homes and developments where quality, character, and care come first.

This next chapter in our story allows us to create thoughtfully planned developments while maintaining the hands-on, personal approach that has defined the Canham name for generations.

The Same People, The Same Principles

Though the branding may differ, the heart of the business remains unchanged. The same people, the same team, and the same high standards underpin both A B Canham & Son and Canham Homes. Every home we build is treated as if it were our own – with responsibility, pride, and a commitment to lasting quality.

From 1974 to today – trusted for generations, building for the future.
