Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

'8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act.8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.

Believed to date back to the 1950s this bespoke and exceptional four bedroom detached house enjoys an elevated plot within the grounds of Heatherton Park on the outskirts of the popular village of Bradford-On-Tone yet benefiting from convenient access to road and rail networks.

The accommodation briefly comprises a useful entrance porch leading into a generous hallway with stairs rising to the first floor and access to all main rooms and to the attached garage/workshop. Steps lead down to the main sitting room which has been cleverly designed to take full advantage of the stunning open countryside views via the fully opening floor to ceiling patio doors. Furthermore, there is a log burner stove creating a real focal point to the room and this room is also enhanced by spotlights and wooden flooring. An archway leads to the adjoining spacious dining room which offers plenty of space for everyday furnishings and also benefits from further patio doors to enjoy views over the manicured gardens and beyond, this room also benefits from an open fire. A further reception room comes off the dining room and is currently used as a home office but could easily double up as an additional bedroom if required. The kitchen overlooks the front aspect and offers a comprehensive range of matching wall and base units with contrasting worktops, tiled splashbacks and flooring, there is ample space for all kitchen appliances and benefits from being warmed by under floor heating. The connecting utility room offers further space for additional appliances and storage along with a door to the gardens. Completing the ground floor is a family bathroom with separate cloakroom. To the first floor there are four bedrooms with the master offering ample built in storage with all bedrooms served by the family shower room.

Externally, the property is approached via gated access leading to a gravel driveway which in turns offers ample parking leading to a generous attached garage/workshop which is connected to power. The grounds surround the property on three sides and offer an abundance of mature planting, wildflower lawns, numerous seating areas all designed to take full advantage of the uninterrupted countryside views including views over the old boating lake. Within the grounds there is a useful shed, timber greenhouse with power, large soft fruit cage, various fruit trees, a compost area, gravel hardstanding, log store and raised decking area perfect for entertaining in the warmer months.

This unique property has to be viewed to truly appreciate all that it has to offer an incoming buyer.
