Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

'8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act.8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.

10 Waterloo Road is a three bedroom mid terrace character property situated within walking distance of the town centre, Wellington Park along with the local Primary and Secondary School. Now in need of improvements, this home offers an exciting opportunity for an incoming buyer to put their own stamp on this property.

The property comprises a uPVC door into the sitting room with a fireplace and access into the kitchen/dining room. The kitchen offers plenty of wall and base units for storage with contrasting worktops and tiled splashbacks. There is a single oven with a four ring gas hob, extractor fan, a stainless steel one and a half sink and spaces provided for white goods. There is also a useful understairs cupboard for storage, space for a dining table and a door to the rear garden.

The first floor features two bedrooms and the tiled family bathroom with a white suite and shower over the bath.

The second floor features a generous bedroom with a window providing far reaching views.

Externally, the rear garden has an outbuilding with electricity and running water and steps lead to an area of patio and a large lawn area.

A viewing comes highly recommended to see what this home has to offer.
