In Brief

Set in a desirable location in Southsea, this beautifully presented three-bedroom family home offers generous living space, versatile reception areas, and stunning views. Upon entering the front door there is an entrance hall leading to three well-proportioned reception rooms, ideal for modern family living. These flexible spaces provide excellent options for a formal lounge, dining room, and a family or study area, all benefiting from plenty of natural light and an appealing outlook. The kitchen offers ample storage and workspace, perfectly suited for both everyday living and entertaining. A convenient downstairs cloakroom completes the ground floor accommodation. Upstairs, the property boasts three comfortable bedrooms, including a spacious principal bedroom and two further well-sized rooms suitable for family members, guests, or home working. The home benefits from two bathrooms, offering practicality and convenience for busy households. Situated in the ever-popular area of Southsea, the home is ideally located close to local amenities, reputable schools, the seafront, and excellent transport links. This attractive family home offers a fantastic opportunity to enjoy spacious living in a highly sought-after coastal location and must be viewed to be fully appreciated.
