Offers in the Region Of £350,000

Welcome to Chase Road, an immaculately presented and considerably extended four bedroom family home situated in the highly sought after Burntwood location.

An internal inspection reveals an abundance of useable space including a beautiful modern kitchen diner with separate utility room and guest W/C, versatile snug space, additional sitting/hobby room, spacious family living room with feature fireplace and completing the ground floor is the large conservatory.

Stairs lead to the first floor where the property boasts a lovely landing, four generous bedrooms and a modern family bathroom.

Outside is really where the property separates itself from competition as you have a simply beautiful, well manicured and privately enclosed garden that is the perfect space for any growing family or keen gardener to get their hands on!

To the fore is useful side access and a multi vehicle driveway.

Nearby amenities include highly regarded schools, easily accessible transport links and a handful of local shops.
