The bustling market town of Tenbury is approached from all directions by driving through the rolling hills of the Worcestershire countryside. An unspoilt slice of the traditional lifestyle is to be found in our town. Tenbury is a supportive community and the majority of the shops across the high street are locally owned. We have a delicatessen, local butchers, fruit and vegetable shop to name a few. An independent cinema offers stage shows, films, pantomimes and comedians all year round. There is also a swimming pool with gym facilities, bowls club and tennis courts.
