Situation

A well extended semi detached property with versatile living space over three floors and private parking for two cars

Hassocks is a vibrant village with a bustling High Street including cafés, a deli, butchers, bakers, post office, restaurants and public houses. Its mainline train station provides regular rail services to London, Brighton and Gatwick. There are also a range of revered state and private schools locally.

This recently constructed and thoughtfully extended semi detached house offers exceptional versatility with an abundance of well planned living space. At its heart lies an impressive open plan sitting/dining room, a wonderfully light space that lends itself to a variety of layouts. Adjoining this is a further reception room ideal as a playroom, office or additional living area. The recently renovated kitchen is finished with sleek granite worktops, inset sink and a range of integrated appliances ensuring both style and durability. Three bedrooms are arranged across the first floor; one currently fitted out as a large walk in dressing room. A family bathroom and en-suite shower room service the bedrooms on the first floor along with a shower room on the second floor servicing two further bedrooms. To the rear, an easy maintenance garden offers an artificial lawn and paved terrace accessible from both the kitchen and main reception room, an ideal setting for outdoor dining and relaxation. A garage and allocated parking space sit just beyond the rear boundary and can be conveniently reached via a timber gate from the garden. The front is predominantly laid to lawn with the vendor having had plans drawn up to create a driveway with further parking for several cars.
