

Lucknow Cottage is a deceptively spacious three-bedroom detached house with generous garden ground to the front and rear of the property, along with fabulous views of the Eildon Hills. Situated in a popular residential area of the desirable Borders town of Melrose the property offers excellent potential, and is only a short walk into the Market Square.

Two and a half miles from the Borders Railway, which runs from Tweedbank to Edinburgh, the house also sits in a strong primary and secondary school catchment, with the Borders General Hospital located on the edge of the town which is particularly convenient. Internally, the accommodation lies across two levels and comprises three bedrooms, an ensuite shower room, a bathroom, a sitting room, and a breakfasting kitchen. With excellent storage throughout, the property benefits from gas central heating, double glazing, making a lovely home in an excellent location.

Externally, there is a semi-detached garage with on-street parking also immediately available to the front of the property. A large lawn with borders to the front and wrought iron railings, has a pathway leading to the front door. To the rear is an extensive garden which is a particular feature with terraced lawn and areas to sit out and enjoy the views, making it an ideal space for informal entertaining. The summer house and greenhouse are also included in the sales price.

Edinburgh is easily accessible via the A68, with most Borders towns readily available from this central location, as well as via the aforementioned Borders Railway.

Edinburgh 39 miles. Galashiels 5 miles. Tweedbank 2.5 miles. Peebles 22 miles.

Location:

Lucknow Cottage is situated in a popular residential area of the attractive Borders town of Melrose. Regarded by many as the most picturesque of the Borders towns, it is situated between the Eildon Hills and River Tweed. With an approximate population of around 2100 in Melrose, and 1200 in the immediate villages of Gattonside, Darnick and Newstead, the town provides an extensive choice of amenities ranging from a variety of specialist independent shops including a green grocer, a fishmonger, two butchers, antique and interiors shops, small supermarkets, a large selection of restaurants and numerous hotels, all situated around the High Street area of this vibrant town. The thriving old mill town of Galashiels five miles to the West offers a fuller range of shopping facilities, which include Tesco, ASDA, Boots, Next and Marks & Spencer.

Local tourist attractions include Melrose Abbey, Harmony House (home to the Borders Book Festival), Priorwood Gardens, the Greenyards, (home of Melrose RFC and Rugby Sevens), and Abbotsford House with award winning visitor centre, the former home of Sir Walter Scott. There are also a variety of outdoor pursuits in the area that include fishing on the River Tweed, fieldsports, horse riding, golf, lawn bowling, mountain biking, and a selection of walks including the Southern Upland Way, St. Cuthbert's Way and The Borders Abbeys Way. Several festivals which include the Melrose 7's Rugby Tournament, the Borders Book Festival and the Melrose Festival complete with ride-out attract visitors from far and wide. Local schools include the excellent Melrose primary school, the highly regarded St Mary's preparatory school, and Earlston High School. The Borders General Hospital also lies just outside the town, and there are a number of churches in the area with Catholic, Episcopal and Church of Scotland represented in the town. Melrose sits in an easily accessible area and can be reached by the A68 or A7 via Galashiels that provide the links to Edinburgh or the north of England. The area is also served by the Borders Railway which runs from Tweedbank to Edinburgh, the station lies approximately two and a half miles away. There is also a busy bus service with links to Newcastle and Carlisle in the South, as well as Edinburgh and the other Border towns.

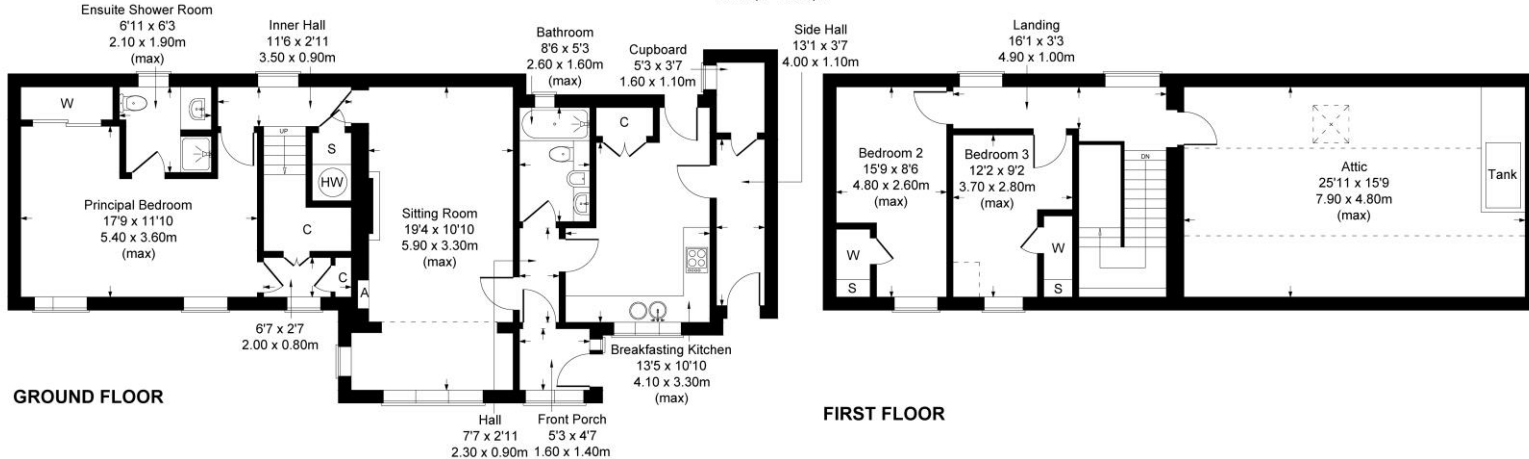

Edinburgh and Newcastle airports - both international, offer an excellent choice of destinations and are 45 miles and 66 miles away respectively.
