

A stone through terrace cottage, located on the outskirts of Todmorden centre, close to the canal and handy for the station. This much improved property offers very well presented 4 bedroom accommodation, with a stylish dining kitchen and modern shower room - both refitted by the current owner.

The cottage is deceptively spacious and retains character features, such as ceiling beams and a stone fireplace to the living room. Double Glazing and Gas Central Heating system installed.

Communal garden to the rear, a south facing cobbled area to the front.

A delightful character property, viewing essential.
