Summary

1 Old Somerton Hotel is a spacious Grade II listed town house offering excellent size living accommodation. There is a large main reception room, kitchen/breakfast room, WC, and a useful basement office/work room. To the first floor there are three double bedrooms and family bathroom with the main bedroom having an en-suite shower room. Outside there is allocated parking for two cars within a gated parking area and a court yard garden. The property was converted from the original Somerton hotel in 2011 and situated in this popular street just a short distance from the town.

Amenities

Somerton was the ancient Capital of Wessex in the 8th century and a former market town. It then later became the County town of Somerset in the 13th/14th Century. There is a good level of amenities including shops, bank, library, doctor and dentist surgeries, there are also several public houses, restaurants, churches and primary schools within the town. A more comprehensive range of amenities can be found in the County town of Taunton to the west or Yeovil to the south. The mainline railway stations are located in Castle Cary, Yeovil and Taunton. The property is also well served by the A303 linking both central London and the South West, the M5 can be joined at junction 23.
