... A Moving Experience

18 VERNON WALK

TADWORTH
KT20 5QP

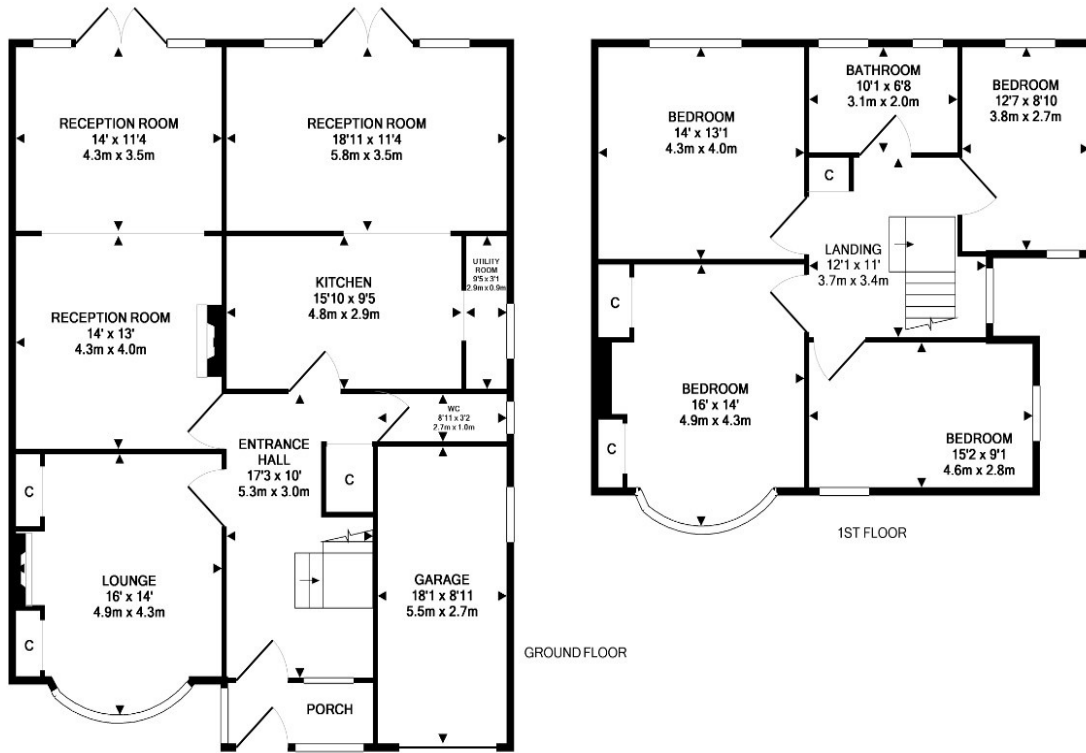

Truly one of the finest examples of this style of 'Costain' house is this very well presented and substantially extended semi-detached property located in a popular cul-de-sac.

This spacious character home features a large entrance hall with cloakroom off, four large reception rooms including a lounge with wide circular bay window to the front, dining room which is open plan into a rear sitting room with doors and window onto the rear garden and, leading off the kitchen, a breakfast room which also opens out onto the rear garden.

On the first floor there is a large central landing giving access to four double bedrooms and a modern bathroom.

This lovely house also boasts a stunning rear garden that has been meticulously maintained and presented and extends to over 250 ft. The front garden has been paved in part to provide parking for two cars and gives access to a single garage.

Asking Price: £575,000 Freehold

For clarification we wish to inform prospective purchasers that we have prepared these sales particulars as a general guide and though they are believed to be correct, their accuracy is not guaranteed. We have not carried out a detailed survey nor tested the services, appliances and specific fittings.
