Services: Mains water, electricity, gas and drainage. Gas fired central heating via radiators.

Agents notes: Access is currently via Forres Sandle Manor school, planning permission will need to be sought to create a drive from Marl Lane on the northern boundary of the property.

Location: The property enjoys a quiet position on the edge of the village of Sandleheath, on the western outskirts of Fordingbridge about 0.75 mile from the town centre and with direct access to foot and bridle paths that cross the surround countryside.

To locate: From our office in Bridge Street, turn left into the High Street bearing right into Shaftesbury Street & continue into Station Road. Continue past the Railway Hotel and after a short distance turn right into Forres Sandle Manor school.

Sandleheath has a thriving community with a village shop, active village hall and tennis club. Nearby Fordingbridge provides further facilities with a variety of independent shops and eateries, a building society, medical centre, public library and churches of various denominations. The Infant, Junior and Burgate Secondary School & Sixth Form Centre are located towards the northern outskirts of the town. There are a number of private schools in the area, notably Forres Sandle Manor which is located a short distance from the property.

The Town lies just to the west of the New Forest National Park boundary and is convenient for access to a number of important centres with Salisbury 11 miles to the north (where there is a mainline rail station to London Waterloo), Ringwood and Bournemouth some 6 and 17 miles respectively to the south, whilst the port of Southampton is approximately 18 miles to the south east. Jct 1 of the M27 can be reached at Cadnam, about 10 miles distant via the B3078.

A rare opportunity to purchase an attractive and interesting cottage, of traditional construction with part brick, part roughcast render and tile hung elevations under mainly tiled roof, presented in good order but with potential to update or extend (subject to planning) if desired.
