FOR SALE

Hadleigh Road, SS0 7NP

£575,000

Situated within the highly sought after Barons Court catchment area and just a short distance from Southend City Centre, Westcliff cliff top Parade and the local shopping area of Hamlet Court Road this substantial character three double bedroom semi detached family home offers unique, generous and versatile split level accommodation on both the ground and first floor.

Ideally positioned for convenient access to local amenities and excellent transport links, including Southend Central railway station and Southend Victoria railway station, the property combines period charm with practical family living.

The accommodation comprises three well proportioned double bedrooms and three spacious reception areas, providing flexible living and entertaining space. The unique split level layout and character features enhances the sense of space and character throughout.

The entrance hall provides access to the spacious open plan lounge and dining area and has a short run of stairs which lead down to the bright and spacious Morning Room which in turn leads into the fitted kitchen, incorporating integrated AEG, oven, hob and microwave, Belfast sink inset into solid wood work tops and a range of modern Shaker style base and wall units with tiling in between and to the floor. A charming stable door leads out to the side patio area and rear garden.

Upstairs along with the three good size bedrooms there is a family bathroom with a period style claw foot bath, a separate shower room and a separate WC, making the home ideally suited to family occupation.

Externally, the property benefits from off street parking and a beautifully landscaped west facing garden, perfect for enjoying afternoon and evening sun.

Offering substantial living space in a prime central location, this impressive home represents a rare opportunity and early viewing is highly recommended.
