FOR SALE

Barrow Hall Road, SS3 0QW

£450,000

Set along a beautiful stretch of Barrow Hall Road, this exceptional three bedroom semi detached bungalow presents a rare opportunity to acquire a home that balances elegant proportions with a profoundly tranquil setting. From the moment of arrival, the property conveys a sense of quiet refinement. A generous frontage provides off street parking, while uninterrupted views across open farmland create an immediate impression of space, light and privacy. A peaceful outlook that changes beautifully with the seasons and lends the home a distinctly rural calm.

Inside, the layout has been thoughtfully arranged to offer both comfort and a natural flow between living spaces. The principal bedroom occupies a privileged position at the front of the home, where large windows frame the sweeping countryside beyond. Fitted wardrobes provide seamless, built in storage, allowing the room's generous scale and serenity to remain uncluttered. A second double bedroom, equally well proportioned, benefits from its own contemporary en suite shower room, creating an ideal guest suite or private retreat for family members. The third bedroom offers flexibility as additional sleeping accommodation, a dressing room, or an elegant home office. Serving the home is a particularly impressive main bathroom, a space designed not merely for function but for indulgence. Here, a walk in shower sits alongside a freestanding bath, complemented by twin basins and refined fittings that evoke the ambience of a boutique spa. It is a room intended for unhurried mornings and restorative evenings alike.

To the rear of the property, the home opens into a welcoming kitchen and dining area, fitted with cabinetry that combines practicality with understated style. This space forms the social heart of the house, perfect for everyday living as well as intimate entertaining. From here, a gentle transition leads down into the lounge, a beautifully proportioned reception room distinguished by its sense of depth and its connection to the garden beyond. Large openings draw the eye outward, allowing natural light to spill across the room and reinforcing the home's harmonious relationship with its surroundings.

The rear garden itself is a true highlight: expansive, private and rich with possibility. Whether envisioned as a landscaped sanctuary, a space for outdoor dining and summer gatherings, or a secure haven for children and pets, it offers both scale and seclusion rarely found in properties of this kind.

Barrow Hall Road enjoys a reputation as one of local areas most desirable residential addresses, prized for its blend of countryside outlook and accessibility. The city centre, with its vibrant cultural scene, acclaimed restaurants and excellent retail offerings, lies within easy reach, as do highly regarded schools and convenient transport links for commuters. Nearby parks, golf courses and walking routes further enhance the lifestyle on offer, providing opportunities for both recreation and quiet reflection. Altogether, this is a home of uncommon balance, spacious yet intimate, refined yet welcoming, connected yet peacefully removed. It invites its next owner not simply to reside here, but to settle into a slower, more considered way of living, framed by open skies at the front and a secluded garden sanctuary at the rear.
