General Remarks

An extremely handsome and very well proportioned and extended detached period family property constructed in the double fronted style having twin bays with accommodation that retains a wealth of period charm and character. The house features its original fireplaces and floors, panelled original doors and plaster ceiling details and much more, whilst is situated within the sought after village of Gresford, close to the beautiful Church and within walled gardens having ample parking to garage. There are four bedrooms and two bathrooms together with three reception rooms, cloakroom and breakfast kitchen and a fine central hall. The gardens are to the side and rear and are level with established landscaping, lawns and a specimen tree. A rare addition to the market. Inspection recommended.
