Extended Family Home - Cul De Sac Position - Superb Kitchen Dining Family Area
This extended family home stands within a cul de sac of just four homes and occupies an enviable corner position. The current owners have updated and improved this warm and welcoming home, which has been further enhanced by a two storey side extension, which has created a superb family room which flows from the kitchen dining area, along with an additional bedroom at first floor level, a room which makes the most of a pleasant wooded aspect to the side of the property thanks to a Juliette balcony. The local area is popular among local buyers, being located on the perimeter of Runcorn and having everyday amenities and schooling located just seconds away. Why not take a closer look at this impressive family home and arrange your viewing today.
