21 Brewery Lane

Bridge, Canterbury

An attractive period terraced cottage offering characterful accommodation and delightful views over paddocks.

Situation

Situated in a small lane in the centre of Bridge convenient for all the local shops and amenities; these include a mini market, health centre, pharmacy, dentist, hairdressers, tea room, Primary school and a selection of public houses and restaurants, including the Michelin Star Bridge Arms and the highly rated Pig Hotel and Restaurant. There are regular bus services to the historic cathedral city of Canterbury, which is just a few miles away and offers a wider range of shopping and recreational facilities, including the renowned Marlow Theatre. A high-speed main line train service from Canterbury to London with the travel time to St Pancras being some 60 minutes. There are excellent road links to the A2/M2, the port of Dover and Folkestone Euro Tunnel terminal.

The Property

Ideally positioned in the heart of the sought-after village of Bridge, Canterbury, this charming home enjoys an enviable setting adjoining open fields. The accommodation includes an enclosed entrance porch leading into a welcoming sitting room. From here, you'll find a well-appointed kitchen with a range of matching wall and base units, space and plumbing for a washing machine, and additional space for a fridge freezer. Upstairs, there is a generously sized double bedroom featuring built-in wardrobes, with direct access to a well-proportioned bathroom. This delightful cottage is perfect for a first-time buyer, an investor, or as a peaceful countryside retreat.

Outside

The enclosed rear garden is of a good size, featuring a lawn with well-stocked borders, a garden shed, and a patio at the far end—an ideal spot to enjoy the picturesque meadow views. The front garden has been beautifully landscaped in a classic English cottage style, adding to the property's charm.
