- ♥ Extensive Parking
- ♥ South Facing Gardens With Views Of The Bloreng

About this property

A four bedroom detached house offering generous accommodation throughout and situated within the established residential area of Ysbytty Fields, a mile from Abergavenny's vibrant town centre. The accommodation is well arranged, with the ground floor offering a living room, separate dining room, sitting room and kitchen, complemented by a conservatory to the rear overlooking the garden. There is internal access to an integral garage with roller door, to the rear of which is a utility area. A WC and hallway complete the ground floor layout. On the first floor are three double bedrooms including a principal bedroom with fitted wardrobes, a single bedroom and a family bathroom. To the front a gated driveway offers secure off-road parking for several vehicles and is particularly well suited to those with a caravan or motorhome. Externally, the rear garden benefits from a southerly aspect offering a wonderful view across the Usk Valley to the Bloreng. It comprises a patio area immediately behind the house, steps leading down to a lawn, and a further seating area positioned at the far end of the garden to make the most of the open outlook and views. The property is conveniently positioned a highly regarded residential area, conveniently located less than a mile from Abergavenny town centre, the train station, and the scenic walks of Castle Meadows.

About the location

A popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Bloreng and the Sugar Loaf mountains, Abergavenny is known as the 'Gateway to Wales'. It is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history, Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly, a high street comprising of recognised chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. Abergavenny is world renowned for its Food Festival which brings the UK's best chefs and culinary experts to the town every September. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away.

Directions

Take the A40, Monmouth Road, out of the Town Centre. After 2/3 of a mile take the right turn into Gobannium Way and then the first left into De Cantelupe Close then left again. The property can be found off the turning circle at the end.
