14 HUNTERS CHASE

SOUTH GODSTONE, SURREY, RH9 8HR

GUIDE PRICE £425,000

A great family semi detached home with three bedrooms and three reception rooms in a popular road in South Godstone. This property is close to St Stephens Church of England Primary School, with access to beautiful countryside yet close to good road and rail links. The house offers the opportunity for a buyer to add their own identity and would benefit from a level of updating. The rear garden is level, south facing and a good size. The property also benefits from a garage and off street parking and is to be sold with no onward chain.

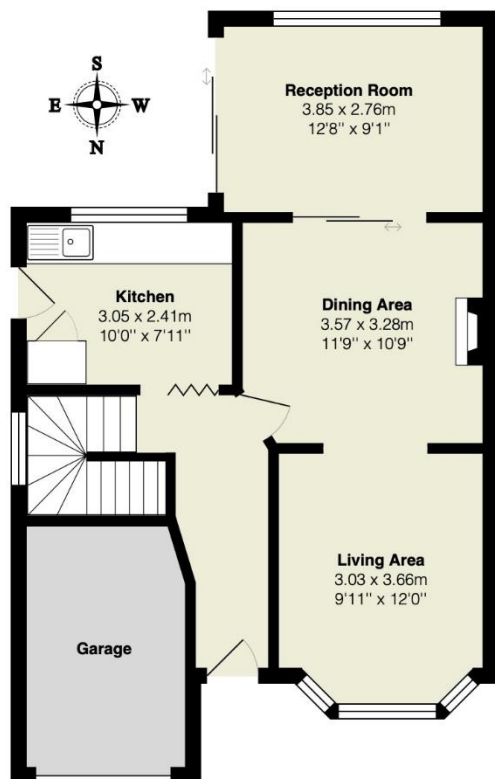

Situated in the semi-rural village of South Godstone, the property is within walking distance of the village primary school and convenient sports field with nearby woods and children's play area. It is a short walk to South Godstone train station that offers trains to Redhill for a change to Croydon in approx 38 Minutes and is in close proximity of junction 6 of the M25. More comprehensive facilities can be found in the nearby towns of Oxted and Caterham both of which offer a range of facilities including further trains to London and a wide range of shops, supermarkets and schools. There are sports and leisure centres in both towns as well as golf and sports clubs locally. The area is surrounded by open countryside including the North Downs with walking, riding and cycling routes nearby.
