Coach House

Old Bolingbroke

Coach House is a newly built, spacious, four-bedroom detached property with attractive open-plan living/dining/kitchen; excellently appointed throughout. A separate lounge; utility, cloakroom and versatile snug/study complete the ground floor – ensuring flexibility to suit a range of requirements.

The first floor is laid out with four bedrooms, including master with en suite, and family bathroom. Occupying a quiet position in the historic village of Old Bolingbroke, the property offers dedicated parking, store and patio garden space and boasts an air source heat system, with underfloor heating to the ground floor.

Home to the ruins of Bolingbroke Castle, birthplace of King Henry IV, Old Bolingbroke sits in a picturesque valley between surrounding hills offering beautiful countryside walks. The well serviced market town of Spilsby lies three miles away, with the larger towns of Horncastle, Boston and Skegness all within convenient distance.
