Description

Devonshire House is a substantial and stunning Victorian villa positioned just off the High Street in central Steyning. Standing proudly on a gentle rise, this elegant three-storey home enjoys far-reaching views while remaining only a short stroll from the town's shops and amenities. Beautifully presented throughout, the property blends classic Victorian character with thoughtful modern updates, offering four bedrooms and generous living spaces. A set of steps leads up to the original wooden front door, sheltered beneath a porch. Inside, the hallway features solid wood flooring that continues into the bay-fronted living room and dining room. This impressive open-plan space is double aspect, enhanced by two cast-iron fireplaces and traditional school-style radiators. The extended kitchen is fitted with bespoke wooden cabinets, a range-style cooker, integrated appliances, and ample room for a table and chairs. An adjoining utility and boot room provides matching units and access to the cloakroom. On the first floor, the large bay-fronted main bedroom includes built-in wardrobes and a stylish ensuite shower room. A second pretty bedroom with original cast iron fireplace and overlooking rear garden, and a spacious family bathroom, complete with rain-head shower and window shutters, complete this level. The second floor offers two further charming double bedrooms, each with original fireplaces and sash windows giving roof top views towards the South Downs. The house is in excellent decorative order, featuring gas-fired heating, refurbished wooden sash double-glazed windows, and additional UPVC windows. Outside, a wrap-around garden and patio accessed directly from the kitchen provide attractive and practical outdoor space for dining and socialising.
